

Petition for Warrant or Summons for Offender Under Supervision

Date Supervision Expires: February 8, 2020

On February 10, 2017, supervised release conditions were reviewed and signed by Mr. Solis acknowledging his understanding of special condition number 15, which prohibits him from the use of illegal controlled substances. On September 5, 2017, Mr. Solis reported to the probation office and was directed to submit to random urinalysis testing. The test returned positive for the presence of methamphetamine using the Redmond Integrated EZ Split Key device. After being confronted regarding his illegal drug use, Mr. Solis admitted to having used the substance on or about September 3, 2017. Mr. Solis signed the admission/denial form admitting to having used the controlled substance.
